

I CLAIM:

1. 1. A decoration with visual effects comprised of a transparent cover to define a closed space filled up with a transparent liquid; a base provided at the bottom of the cover having at the center on its top disposed a heat source, and multiple color sources in different colors on the peripheral of the heat source; and a solid wax containing solid status oil wax in a specific weight slightly greater than that of the transparent liquid and settled down at the bottom in the cover in normal condition is characterized by that when the heat source being conducted, convection taking place in the liquid, the solid wax being cracked into multiple pieces suspending in the liquid, colors projected from those light sources being consistently atomized, mixed, and transmitted through each suspended pieces of the wax distributed at different locations in the convection of the liquid to create soft, dynamic, and attractive visual effects.
2. A decoration with visual effects as claimed in Claim 1, wherein, a recess is provided on the top of the base, and a flange is provided at the bottom of the cover to be inserted into the recess of the base for the cover to be incorporated into the base.
3. A decoration with visual effects as claimed in Claim 1, wherein, a recess is provided at the bottom of the cover to merely accommodate the light and the heat sources once the cover is incorporated into the base.